Fort William is situated amidst picturesque scenery on the shores of Loch Linnhe. By reason of its proximity to Ben Nevis and other places of note, it is a popular centre for tourists in the Western Highlands. It derives its name from the fort which was erected in the time of William III., as a caution to Jacobite chieftains; this building is now almost destroyed.

For last week I have had a brown line in the moulting hair
I'll require a horse
hair when I return.
Hope you didn't have occasion of the bees
I've at Dunblane this week.
